

The Putney School
Farm Intern

The Putney School is a progressive independent high school with a working dairy and vegetable farm. We are looking to hire a seasonal farm intern to work in the vegetable gardens and on the farm. The candidate must be reliable, responsible, hard-working, have a positive attitude, and enjoy working on a team.. Training will be provided as needed.

During the summer, members of the farm crew are also expected to work a few barn chore shifts on the dairy farm each week, including some weekend shifts, as well as help unloading hay on some weekends. The position will start at around 30 hours a week in March and the beginning of April, and will increase to 45 to 55 hours per week as the season picks up. Position start and end dates are somewhat flexible but are approximately March 15 to October 15.

Housing and most meals are provided along with a monthly stipend.

Putney is a progressive, co-educational, boarding school of 230 students located in Putney, Vermont. The Putney School cultivates and sustains a community that embraces difference, seeks inclusivity, and demands cultural awareness.

Essential Responsibilities:

- Supervise barn chore shifts on the farm and in the gardens.
- Work with garden crew (weeding, hoeing, harvesting, etc).
- Farm tasks as needed (haying, etc).

Education and Experience

- Must be able to perform physical labor.
- Must pass background check.

Application Instructions:

Interested candidates should send a resume and cover letter to garden manager Katie Ross Morrison at kross@putneyschool.org. Inquiries will be taken on a rolling basis through Feb 15.
