

The Putney School History Faculty Position

The Putney School seeks a history teacher to start in the 2021-2022 school year.

Putney is a progressive, coeducational boarding school of 230 students located in Putney, Vermont. The Putney School is committed to cultivating and sustaining an educational community that values difference. Our commitment to social justice work is embedded in our stated Fundamental Beliefs. The ideal candidate will be eager to participate in anti-racist work and use an inclusive, social justice lens in their work with all students and adults on campus. Building a just and inclusive community is a shared responsibility, and Putney supports all its employees in developing this critical skill set.

The job includes:

- Academic teaching including interdisciplinary collaborations and considerable independent project work with students
- Duties in the work program, athletics or another area of expertise outside the classroom
- Residential duties include being a resident dorm head
- Advisory duties to 6-8 students

The ideal candidate:

- Has interest and demonstrated ability in teaching and supporting adolescents
- Is eager to work effectively with a team of teachers to plan
- Is able to teach to a wide range of student abilities and levels
- Has skills and experience in progressive pedagogy

Minimum requirements:

- Bachelor's degree in history or related field, MA or MAT in history or a related field preferred
- Minimum of two years of teaching experience, preferably with high school students

Please send a cover letter, resume, and list of references to:

employment@putneyschool.org